Manitoba Project Achieves Charitable Status

Corroboree, an enviro cross-cultural education centre that will create a catalyst for cultural collaboration, has qualified as a registered charity in Canada.

The Manitoba-based project will deliver a diversity of programming and activities in education, culture and the environment that will involve and benefit a wide cross section of the community and the region.

Project Designer Jenny Gates has been developing Corroboree over the past decade. “Now that the project has achieved charitable status, we can focus on securing funding and other support to move Corroboree forward.”
